BUSINESS COLLEGE NOTES.

Owing to a superabundance of school duties during the past few weeks, our times have been neglected, but we are pleased to report that our attendance has greatly increased so that it stands about 80 to-day.

Prof. I. E. Butler, Principal of the Cape Girardeau school, and Prof. E.
A. Smith, Principal of the Business Department of the Ste. Genevieve school, were guests of President Moothart last Saturday and Sunday. They came over on Friday to witness the big football game between the St. Charles Military Academy and the Moothart Business College, which game resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 10 to 5.

Rev. Owers and Dr. Blanks have been recent visitors, inspecting the work of the different departments.
Both of these gentlemen were very complimentary and praised the work of the actual business department very highly. We trust that more of our business and professional men will make it convenient to visit the school at any time, but especially between the hours of 2 and 4 p. m., at which time the actual business room is performing the real work of the miniature business world.

The following students have taken their regular work in the Bank, Wholesale and Retail offices since the beginning of the school: Messrs. McNutt, Conway, Herod, Fairchild, Murphy, Sutton, D. J. Moore, McDaniel and Miss Sprott.

Miss McNutt, who recently graduated from the Farmington Business College, has secured a lucrative position in St. Louis.

Football Thanksgiving Day.

The Moothart Business College will play one of the best football teams in Missouri on Thanksgiving Day. The game will be played in Farmington.
The opposing team will be the West Ends, Battery A or Virginia Athletic Club.

The ladies of the Sikeston Catholic church gave a bazaar recently which netted them $500.

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.

BISMARCK BREVITIES.

Wm. Bolz visited DeSoto Sunday.
S. M. Heard visited Farmington Monday.
Wm. Wallen has moved into his new home.
Miss Nellie McGrew visited Irondale friends Sunday.
Roxie Kinder of St. Louis is visiting in Bismarck this week.
Engineer Baldwin and wife returned from St. Louis Sunday.
Chas. Butler of St. Louis spent Sunday here with his family.
Miss Alice Collier is visiting friends in Fredericktown this week.
Joe Hickman and wife of Des Arc visited relatives here Sunday.

Reports have it that Jake Heek was married in Farmington Monday.

Two new dwelling houses are being erected in the Clarkson addition.

Walter Hensley of Farmington was transacting business here Monday.

Miss Lella Rongy of Bonne Terre is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. J. Pittle.

Wm. Devine, Jr. is constructing a private telephone line from his home to town.

Mrs. Mason and son Robert of Irondale visited the family of N. A. Cottrell Sunday.

Mrs. S. M. Carter of Cape Girardeau visited the family of G. G. Ballard Saturday.

Harry McGrew moved into the property this week recently vacated by the family of John Whitworth.

B. T. Eaton, the hotel proprietor, met with a painful accident Friday by having one of his hands burned with gasoline.

A new time card went into effect on the Iron Mountain Sunday. Many minor changes, but none of great importance are made.

A number of business men here are in communication with some casing factory people that propose to locate a factory here to can fruits, vegetables, etc.

Ward, the twelve-year-old son of Walter Black, again underwent a surgical operation for an appendicitis abscess this week. His condition is critical at this writing.

A number of our citizens visited Farmington Monday as witnesses in the case of the State vs. Henry Brown, charged with assaulting and breaking the lower jaw of Sam Wood.

R. M. Doves this year started a tomato canning factory here and the quality of their product is superior to anything that we have seen. Bismarck is certainly the place for this enterprise.

Rev. H. J. LaTour, pastor of the Baptist church here, was agreeably surprised Saturday evening when his friends gathered to celebrate his sixtysixth birthday, and presented the elderly reverend gentlemen with a fine leather chair. He appreciates the splendid gift and appreciates more the spirit in which it was given.

LOUGHBORO.

Mr. Louis Yeates spent last Sunday in St. Louis.

Mr. Thomas Alexander of Leadwood visited homefolks several days the past week.

Miss Jennie Taylor of Doe Run attended church and visited friends here last Sunday.

L. G. Yeates of Elvins spent last Thursday here the guest of his sister, Mrs. Ellen Hurley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ethers Dennison were baptized at this place by Elder Mc-Clanahan on last Sunday.

Mrs. Willis Barton and children of near Elvins spent Sunday the guests of Mrs. Amelia Blankenship.

Messrs. Norman Jackson, Ed Jackson and Harvey Chilton spent last Sunday the guests of Clarence Yeates.

Elder Ed McClanahan of Knob Lick filled his regular appointment here at the Baptist church on last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Minna Kendall entertained quite a number of young people on Sunday afternoon. Among those present were Misses Lou Chilton, Mattie Jackson, Anna Huff, Rhoda Hudson, Pearl and Lillie Yeates and Lottie Dowell.

Card of Thanks.
We wish to extend to our many kind neighbors and friends our sincere thanks for the assistance so cheerfully given during the recent fatal illness and death of our mother.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. MURPHY.
LAURA MURPHY, Grand Daughter.

LIBERTYVILLE DOINGS.

All kinds of weather except good.
The snow, rain and sleet has put a stop to farm work.

A. M. Wallace is the juryman from this end of the county this court.

W. A. Moran moved from Mr. Till-man's place into the Cashion house last week.

Elder A. J. Barnes of Chamois, Mo., delivered two interesting discourses at the Christian church Sunday.

Mr. Cox is building a new barn on Dr. Presnell's farm, and making many other needed improvements.

Miss Victoria Heintman left here Sunday for Patton, where she has accepted a position in a mercantile establishment.

Mrs. Wm. Whitworth of Higdon has been here about two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Simpson, who is in bad health.

Ellis Ferguson, who has been working in the Lead Belt the past month, returned home last week with his fortune, and has started to school.

Prof. Hick's and Miss Heard's pupils will give an entertainment and box supper on Thanksgiving evening.
Proceeds to be used for library. Everybody invited to attend.

We think one of the greatest humbugs is the weather forecast at Washington. We have taken notice of them the past year, and have never once known them to correctly forecast the weather in these parts forty-eight hours in advance. They said Monday and Tuesday would be fair in Missouri, and it commenced raining here last Friday and is raining yet. (Wednesday.) Creeks are all out of banks, washing fencing away, and the farmers are looking sad and very much discouraged.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Phillips have moved to Farmington.

Farmers are busy gathering corn, baling hay and getting ready for winter.

Ellis E. Clay has removed his family from Flat River back to his farm near Chestnut Ridge.

Mr. Joseph R. Rudy has begun a few months school at the new church district near Coffman, and we predict success for him.

A series of meetings were begun at Chestnut Ridge Church last Saturday by Rev. LeGrand of Morley and C. E.
Fontaine of Bellegrade.

Miss Minnie Laws came home from her brother Kennet's, who lives on the late Thomas Marks farm. Miss Elena is now staying with her brother's wife who has been quite ill.

Rollins Mayberry has rented his farm to Bradford Womack and gone to Flat River to work at a caliche furnace. He has had thirteen years experience at that kind of work.

Hugh Shannon has traded his five-acre tract of land on the plank road four miles east of town to Bert Phillips for ten acres adjoining his farm on Sand creek.

Mrs. Mary Radloff, daughter of Judge John Horton, who lives on the Wilson Laws farm, had a sale of her personal property a few days ago, and will remove to Farmington.

Miss Margarie Harrelson, who is teaching near Coffman, has secured another appointment as teacher in an Indian school in New Mexico, at a salary of $600 a year, without making an application for the place. It will be remembered that Miss Margarie held a position last year in the Southern Ute Indian school in Colorado.
She received her appointment from the Civil Service Commission, but hasn't learned whether she will be a superintendent or not.

Our old friend Mr. C. J. Harrelson has been rather unfortunate the past three weeks; first getting the end of the index finger of his right hand cut off at the root of the nail by a broken elder mill; on Tuesday evening of last week he went to the barn to feed and getting off a hay mow about seven or eight feet high fell across a joint, striking on his left side, breaking two or more ribs. When the smoke of battle cleared away, he was minus a hat, his hair and whiskers were full of hay seed, and a real hay-seeder indeed was he. Dr. Fleming was called to patch up his injuries, and assured him he would live at least fifteen years longer, which was some consolation.

A MOTHER'S

A pretty little story full of heart interest to the world of mothers comes from Middleton, Ohio. In that city at 310 Grand Ave. lives Mrs. Dan Dory and her two little children.
Sometime ago Mrs. Dory was taken sick with a severe affection of the kidneys and it was only great effort and a mother's boundless love that enabled her to care for her household and her little ones. She had tried every remedy she heard of in a vain effort to regain her health and was quite discouraged when friends advised her to try the famous Cooper remedies, which she did with some reluctance.

A letter recently received by Mr.
Cooper tells the balance of the story.
"I was hardly able to drag myself about the house, I felt so badly," it said. "The terrible pains and soreness in my back rendered me unfit for any thing. I was also very weak, my appetite poor and I could not sleep. The Cooper medicines have entirely relieved me and now I eat well and sleep soundly."

"I feel well and strong again and can now care for my little ones and my household duties. I heartily recommend these wonderful remedies to every suffering mother."

Cooper's New Discovery is the medicine that has done so much for Mrs.
Dory and which is making such a record curing the severest cases of kidney and stomach trouble. It is the greatest of all tonics and is absolutely pure. It sells for one dollar per bottle, and Cooper's Quick Relief, an external remedy which is used in connection, costs fifty cents. They are sold only by E. M. Laakman.

SALEM NEIGHBORHOOD.

Mrs. Carrie Parks is on the sick list.

Elmus Board of Route No. 2 has moved to St. Louis.

Mrs. Ed Brewer cut her hand very severely one day last week.

J. A. Edwards of St. Louis is down visiting relatives this week.

Messrs. Gardner and Sam Gillespie were guests of Willie Perryman Sunday.

Mr. Henry Meyer and daughter, Miss Lizzie, are very poorly at this writing.

J. E. Edwards and family visited his brother, James Edwards and family Sunday.

Miss Edna Perryman of Esther visited her cousin, Miss Sallie Perryman, Friday and Saturday.

Little Iva Richards is spending a few days with her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Edwards.

Russell Straghan, the new operator at Farmington Junction, spent Sunday night with his mother, Mrs. Mary Straghan.

Mr. and Mrs. Mead Richards and little daughter Iva visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Edwards, from Friday until Sunday.

Obituary.

Mrs. Sarah A. Beck died November 8, 1906, after a brief illness of pneumonia, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. M. Murphy, near Farmington, in the 65th year of her age. Her husband, the late C. H. Beck, died about ten years ago. Mrs. Beck was converted at Loughboro Baptist Church about fifteen years ago and about six months ago united with the Baptist Church at Flat River, and has been a faithful, consistent Christian since the time of her conversion. She was the mother of ten children, three of whom preceeded her to the heavenly home.
The surviving children are Mrs. H. M.
Murphy, Mrs. John Andrews, Mrs.
Perk Gotthard, Mrs. Kennett Riekard, and T. J., E. M. and D. A. Beck.
The funeral was conducted by Rev. C.
E. Whitlock, pastor of the Baptist Church at Flat River, at the home of Mr. H. M. Murphy, on Saturday, November 10th, and the body was laid at rest in the old Murphy grave yard, near Farmington.

"Oh, call it not death, it is life begun, For the waters are passed, the home is won;
The ransomed spirit hath reached the shore
Where they weep, and suffer and sin no more,
And is safe in our Father's home above,
In the place prepared by our Savior's love.
To depart from a world of sin and strife,
And to be with Jesus, yes, this is life."
